

Tuesday, August 17, 2010

APPLAUSE / Daily Press

Cadet Major Erin McFadden and Cadet Captain Meagan Rankin of the Academy for Academic Excellence were selected to attend the prestigious AFJROTC Aerospace and Technology Honors Camp at the University of New Mexico in July. This is the first time two AAE cadets were selected simultaneously. At the honors camp, the cadets were introduced to scientific, technology and aviation career opportunities in the U.S. Air Force. The camp also included hands-on curriculum activities, visits to operational Air Force units, research labs, historical sites, aerospace industries, private pilot ground school and a light aircraft incentive ride. Less than 1/2 of one percent of the 110,000 AFJROTC cadets worldwide are selected to attend the camp.

