

Sunday, December 2, 2012

VALLEY SNAPSHOT

VV Motors makes donation to Lewis Center

FROM STAFF REPORTS

Sales Director Billy Mack and Fleet Manager Kevin Smilen for Victorville Motors visited the Lewis Center for Educational Research and the Academy for Academic Excellence in November to deliver a donation of $3,200 to CEO of the Lewis Center Rick Piercy for the center's non-profit foundation.

Victorville Motors was present at the Lewis Center Foundation's September Festival of the Arts with new Dodge vehicles for test rides. For each person taking a test ride, Dodge made a $20 donation.

"The Victor Valley is where we live and do business. We are happy to be able to give back to the community and support education," said Mack.

PHOTO COURTESY OF CHERYL THOMPSON

GIFT OF LEARNING: Victorville Motors Sales Director Billy Mack, left, and Fleet Manager Kevin Smilen, right, present a check for $3,200 to CEO of the Lewis Center for Educational Research and the Academy for Academic Excellence Rick Piercy in support of furthering education in the High Desert.

Used with permission by Freedom Communications, 2012