

High honors for AAE Class of 2013

published by mhprov on Thu, 06/20/2013 - 12:38

Photo courtesy of Cheryl Thompson

ABOVE: Students receive their 4.0 and above grade point average gold cords at the Academy for Academic Excellence's 2013 Baccalaureate Ceremony June 9 at Church of the Valley. Awarding the cords are Gordon Soholt, principal, Charlotte Wilmeth-Street, high school vice principal, and Lewis Center CEO Rick Piercy. For AAE's class of 2013, co-valedictorians are Dena McFadden and Ashley Bergstrom, and co-salutatorians are Hannah Harbottle and Tevin Stewart. The class of 2013 numbers at 103, with three of those were foreign exchange students, according to Cheryl Thompson, manager of development and media relations for the Lewis Center.

Used with permission by Freedom Communications, 2013